

Job description for Youth Development:

The William Bailey Revitalization and Education Community Center, Inc. is a PA nonprofit that specializes in adult athletics, education and child development.

This position will have learning opportunities in the Education Department under the direction and supervision of the Education Director. The program by which any work and/or experience will be conducted is Philadelphia Early Learning Academy (www.PELAkids.com). This program is growing at a tremendous rate.

The position will be working to do the following duties with the following learning opportunities:

- Working in the education programs:
  - Pre-School (ages 3.5 - 5)
  - Before/After Care (ages 6-10)
  - In-school support (ages 6-14)
- Study youth behavior/psych and conduct holistic therapies
  - Log-in findings and observations
- Attend meetings for IEPs, Parent relations, etc.
  - Gaining program management experience
  - Gaining experience of interdisciplinary team work.
- Managing program promotions
- Reporting to the Director with updates
- Attend meetings and produce ideas and program suggestions/feedback.

Requirements:

- Be a Psychology, Research, Mental Health, Behavioral Health, Counseling, etc. major.
- And/Or be an Education Minor
- Have at least a 2.5GPA
- Have reliable transportation

Benefits:

- Relevant exposure and learning experience
- Pay is negotiable
- Relevant food and transportation costs paid for